

- Name : RAJESWARI R.
- Designation : Associate Professor
- Qualification (pertinent) : M Pharm (Pharmacy Practice)
PhD – Pursuing
Study Title: ‘Impact Of Community Pharmacy Services to Enhance the Adherence to DOTS Therapy For Better Tubercular Treatment outcomes in Bengaluru (COPE-DOTS) – An Open Label Randomized Control Trial’
- Qualification (additional) : MBA (HR & MARKETING)
Post Graduate Diploma In Clinical Trials
Certificate course: Health Research Methodology & Evidence Based Medicine from Mc Master university University/SJRI.
- Professional Memberships : APTI, IJHP, ACPI-KSPOR
- Experience (years) : Academic: 8 years
Industry: 5 years
- Areas of Interest : Public Health, Pharmacovigilance , Rational Drug Use
- Total Publications : Journal: 20
- Projects Guided : 15
- Selected Publications : 1. Merlin Thaipparambil Silvan, Rajeswari Ramaswamy, Teena Nazeem. Study on self-medication practice among consumers in parts of East Bengaluru. 2016 IJPR Volume 6 (3); 210-16.
2. Cigy Thomas, Rajeswari Ramaswamy, Teena Nazeem, Assessment of Factors contributing to Improper Drug Use in ICU at a Tertiary Care Teaching Hospital. IAJPR, 2016; 6(3): 4646-4656.
3. Janet Jacob, Cigy Thomas, Ahmadi Naaz, Rajeswari Ramasamy, Teena Nazeem, Dr. Susheela Shekar. Study of prescription pattern in an intensive care unit: A prospective observational study. WJPPS, 2015; 5, (1): 1125-1132
4. Devarajan K, Koya J, Paidi NR, Rajeswari R, Sudarshan P. Study on timely administration of antibiotic prophylaxis practice in surgical procedures at a tertiary care teaching hospital, South India. International journal for Pharmaceutical Research Scholars, 2015; 4(2): 317-321.
5. Koya JB, Kaveetha D, Rajeswari R , et al. Study of antimicrobial prophylaxis pattern in surgical procedures and incidence of post operative infection – a retrospective study. Indo American J. of Pharma Research 2015 Volume 5 (3); 158-66.

5. Daghari ZJ, Nikitha, Rajeswari R et al. Incidence and assessment of antidotes in organophosphate poisoning at a tertiary care hospital, South India. World Journal of Pharmaceutical Research 2014 Vol 3(10)1652-9

6. Nikitha, Daghari ZJ, Rajeswari R et al. Assessment of severity of Organo Phosphate poisoning at a tertiary care hospital, South India. World Journal of Pharmaceutical Research 2014 Vol 4 (1)

7. Shanmugam S, Lini EC, Rajeswari R, et al. Impact of pharmaceutical care on quality of life in patients with type 2 diabetes mellitus. J. Res Med Sci. 2011 March; 16 (1): S 412- 8.

8. Shanmugam S, Ali G, Rajeswari R, et al. Prevalence of Adverse Drug Reactions at a private tertiary care hospital in south India. Journal of Research in Medical Sciences. 2011; 16(1):16-25.

Selected Proceedings : No of Proceedings: 11

Rajeswari R, Divya A, Satish R, Ashwanth R. Clinical pharmacists' intervention in reducing intravenous Medication administration errors. Oral Scientific session presented at : Session 2: Towards a better quality of care, 7th Asian Conference on Pharmacoepidemiology; 2012 Oct 26- 28; Bangalore-India.

Academic honor/ professional accolades : 2013/ St. John's Medical College & Research Institute (NIH- center of Excellence) & PHRI, McMaster University, Canada awarded First Place for Academic Excellence for course on 'Health Research Methodology & Evidence Based Medicine'

Grants Grant amount Rs.5000 from Indian Pharmaceutical Association-Community Pharmacy Division for the Research Work entitled 'Impact Of Community Pharmacy Services to Enhance the Adherence to DOTS Therapy For Better Tubercular Treatment outcomes in Bengaluru (COPE-DOTS) – An Open Label Randomized Control Trial' for training the community pharmacists.

eMail id : rajeswari.emails@gmail.com