

KRUPANIDHI COLLEGE OF PHARMACY, BANGALORE.

REPORT ON THE SEMINAR: Job Opportunities for fresh Pharma Graduates.

Name of the speaker: Mr. Uma Nandan Mishra

Venue: KCP Seminar Hall

Date: 20/08/2016

Time: 11.30 A.M-1.30 P.M

The inaugural seminar for the new academic year 2016-17, was delivered by Mr. Uma Nandan Mishra, Dean, Pharma Training Institute (PTI). The guest speaker was formally welcomed by Dr. M. D. Karvekar, Director, Academics, KCP and Dr. P. V. Mallya, Director, CPPA, KCP. Mrs. Prabitha introduced the speaker. The participants comprised of students of Final B.Pharm, V Pharm. D, I and II M.Pharm. Mr. Mishra eloquently explained the various avenues available for the budding pharmacists of today and contrasted it with the lack of such opportunities during the past when he was a young pharmacist. He delved into his vast repertoire of working in several departments of pharmaceutical industry to give insights and related many anecdotal examples about the proper attitude required as a young trainee. He then introduced PTI to the students and briefed about the various courses and fees. At the end there, there was a Q&A round with the students. The vote of thanks was delivered by Mr. Arshad. Feedback and attendance was recorded for the session.

Prof. P. V. Mallya

Principal

KRUPANIDHI COLLEGE OF PHARMACY, BANGALORE.

REPORT ON THE SEMINAR: Entrepreneurship

Name of the speaker: Mr. Jatish Sheth

Venue: KCP Seminar Hall

Date: 27/08/2016

Time: 11.30 A.M-12.45 P.M

Mr. Jatish Sheth, an eminent entrepreneur, delivered a virtuoso seminar on the topic-“Entrepreneurship”. The guest speaker was formally welcomed by Dr. M. D. Karvekar, Director, Academics, KCP and Dr. P. V. Mallya, Director, CPPA, KCP. Mrs. Prabitha introduced the speaker. The participants comprised of students of III and Final B.Pharm, I and II M.Pharm. The speaker guided the students about ‘What, How and When’ regarding entrepreneurship. He spoke about the hard-work and commitment that goes into making an entrepreneur. Mr. Sheth explained the various facets of the dynamic pharmaceutical industry and gave real-life examples of overcoming hurdles in the path towards success. He highlighted the role innovation can play in success. He briefed about the great innovators of yore and modern era and told the audience to draw inspiration from them. At the end there, there was a lively and interactive Q&A round with the students, an unprecedented number of students, including foreign students from Yemen and South Sudan queried the distinguished guest. The vote of thanks was delivered by Mr. Arshad. Feedback and attendance was recorded for the session. The feedback showed that most of the participants gave an excellent to good rating for the seminar.

Prof. P. V. Mallya

Principal

KRUPANIDHI COLLEGE OF PHARMACY, BANGALORE.

REPORT ON THE SEMINAR:“Formulation-Development, Clinical&Regulatory Requirements”

Name of the speaker: Dr.SeetarajuGembali

Venue: KCP Seminar Hall

Date: 03/09/2016

Time: 11.45 A.M-1.00 P.M

Dr.SeetarajuGembali, Senior Vice President, GVK-Bioscience, delivered an enlightening seminar on the topic-“Formulation-Development, Clinical&Regulatory Requirements”. The guest speaker was formally welcomed by Dr. M. D. Karvekar, Director, Academics, Mr. Narendra, Campus Registrar, KCP and Prof P. V. Mallya, Director, CPPA, KCP. Mrs. Prabitha introduced the speaker. The participants comprised of students of III and Final B.Pharm, I and II M.Pharm, VPharm D and teaching staff. The seminar was exceptional with real practical examples faced in the formulation and development. He also explained the patent challenges and the business strategy in implementing innovation products. Dr.Seetaraju explained the various stages of Formulation development and Regulatory approvals. He also concluded that along with the technical skills the regulatory requirements should also be strictly followed for a safe and efficient formulation. At the end there, was a lively and interactive Q&A round with the students. The vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. Bharani. Feedback and attendance was recorded for the session. The feedback showed that most of the participants gave an excellent to good rating for the seminar.

Prof. P. V. Mallya

Principal

